Mr. Frank Carlucci
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Frank:

Just a short note to thank you for all your help on both providing a reading list for the course on the CIA and the final field trip to Washington.

The students were quite impressed with the whole thing. Impressed that is, in the usual New York tough guy, cynical manner. They believed some of what they saw and about half of what they heard. What was good about the whole thing is that it helped di-mystify the CIA a bit. This I think is badly needed. Before the trip and the course, it was easy to dump all U.S.A. internal and external problems at the door of the CIA. Now some of the students are not so sure. One even submitted an article to Commentary on the question of national security. In a sense you were building a constituency.

STATINTL

The staff people were quite good in dealing with the students. Especially Mr. [REDACTED]

I wrote to General Walters and he promised that the next time I give the course he would come in and talk.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Dear [REDACTED]:

I am sorry that I have taken so long to thank you and the other people who participated in the talks that we had at your headquarters last May. It was an eye opening experience and the students, cynical as ever, seemed to have both enjoyed it and learned something. If I ever give the course again, and I hope to, we still would like to get someone on 'our turf'.

The information packets arrived. Thanks very much.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Frank:

Enclosed is a preliminary course outline. If I ever get the final one done before the semester is over I'll send it on. Thanks for the bibliographical suggestions.

Two brief questions, does your organization have any speaker that, would like to or be able to, come to New York and talk about the organization in an historical context? Any Thursday in April except the 12th would be fine. And second, could the last seminar of the course be held at your shop in Washington, with some assigned reading before, for discussion?
